City Refused Federal Grant for Sewage Plant

No More U.S. GIs To Be Assigned To Lebanese Area

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—One thousand more U.S. troops arrived in Lebanon today. An American military spokesman said this completed the movement of troops assigned here.

There are now more than 14,000 U.S. soldiers and Marines here. The troops debarking from the transport, Gen. Geiger, included a hospital unit, signals and signals photos units and a graves registration team.

Gen. Fuad Shehab, Lebanon's army chief who was elected president of the nation last week as a compromise in a three-month rebellion, declared Monday withdrawal of U. S. troops was foremost among the national aims.

But President Camille Chamoun indicated his determination to keep the troops here until his term ends Sept. 23.

In his first pronouncement since he was elected last Thursday, Shehab indicated he intends to follow a policy of neutrality toward the big powers, friendship with Arab neighbors and unity and stability in Lebanon.

A U. S. Embassy spokesman said American troops will leave when asked to do so by the duly constituted government.

Chamoun, the pro-Western President who asked Washington to send the troops three weeks ago, said I won't ask the Marines to conference held before he becomes president.

Shehab said the national charter drawn up by all sects in this half-Christian, half-Moslem nation when the French left in 1943 "emphasizes Lebanon's independence and it is a clear Arab policy. Frankness in relations with our Arab brothers will be among the bases of the country's future foreign policy."

Chamoun's acceptance of the Eisenhower Doctrine had separated Lebanon from Arab forces led by U.A.R. President Nasser and was one cause of the revolt which led to the Marines' landing.

Iraqis Study Baghdad Pact

Bel Leader Hints Withdrawal Coming

BAGHDAD (AP)—The head of the new government of Iraq in his first public statement on the Baghdad Pact gave strong indication Monday his regime is leaning toward withdrawal from the Western-sponsored alliance.

Brig. Gen. Abdul Karim Kassem, who led the revolt that de-throned and killed King Faisal, said in an interview that his government is giving careful study to the pact which U.A.R. President Nasser and the Soviet Union so often have assailed.

"The most important thing in this matter is friendship between Iraq and other states," Kassem declared. "This friendship is above any kind of pact or treaty."

The alliance with Britain, Iran, Pakistan and Turkey was "drawn up by a few people here in Iraq," he said.

"Though we have studied it, up until now we have been unable to get from those connected with the administration of the pact any details about the pact's function because these details were considered secret and are still secret to us," Kassem went on.

"We are studying, and then we will make our decision. But the decision won't be announced without previous contact with other members. We want everything to be settled in a friendly manner."

Kassem asserted there would be no interference by Nasser in Iraqi affairs.

Nor will Iraq interfere in the affairs of neighboring Jordan, Kassem continued. But he said he thinks a plebiscite should be held in Jordan to determine whether the people want King Hussein to keep his throne.

Creek Claims Youth

Hunt for Slasher of Boy, 7, Centers at Lockbourne Base

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The search for a man who abducted and sexually maimed a 7-year-old boy is being centered at nearby Lockbourne Air Force Base.

A windshield sticker with the letters S-A-C and showing a mailed fist clutching lightning bolts is the clue that turned the search toward the huge bomber base. The boy whose father is an air man at the base, said he saw it on the windshield of the car in which he was attacked Sunday.

Base officials said the mailed fist is a Strategic Air Command (SAC) emblem, but that the sticker was probably the type purchased at the base exchange and not the official one issued to cars allowed on the base. Lockbourne is a SAC installation.

Al. Police at the base are working on a list of 200 cars which fit the description given by the youngster. Files on more than 7,000 vehicles registered on the base were screened Monday.

At Children's Hospital here, surgeons said the boy's wounds are not extensive enough to destroy normal functioning of the affected body area. The boy is listed in good condition.

Denial Leaves Finance Plans Up to Council

Pollution Permit Expires Oct. 15; Speed Necessary

A Washington C. H. application for a federal grant to assist with a half million dollar sewage treatment plant expansion program has been turned down for the second time, City Manager James F. Parkinson was informed Tuesday.

A letter from F. H. Waring, chief engineer for the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board, said that 50 cities have made applications for grants totaling over 7 million dollars. The Ohio federal appropriation from Congress for the fiscal year of 1958-59 is only $1,658,600.

Waring said it is impossible to make grants to all possible applicants. Priorities were established on the basis of financial as well as pollution control needs, he said.

Since Washington C. H. did not receive priority for a grant, Waring advised Parkinson that the city would have to proceed with construction of the sewage treatment works without federal assistance.

SINCE THE CITY has been under pressure by the Ohio Water Pollution Control Board for the last two years, Council will have to give the situation its immediate attention.

Washington C. H. is subject to a fine of $500 per day after the current permit to discharge partially treated effluent into Paint Creek expires Oct. 15 — unless, of course, the permit is extended.

The city has received one renewal after another the past five years. One condition for another extension is that city must show evidence of progress toward correcting the situation.

THE CITY NOW will have to finance the expansion to the sewage treatment plant for the full 100 per cent instead of the hoped for 70 per cent. The application was for $159,000.

Parkinson said financing for the "stripped-down" program of plant expansion will be determined by City Council.

Bonds secured by sewage rental revenues appear to be the most practical solution.

Toledoans Jailed In Student-Shooting

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Two Toledo men who robbed and shot an Antioch College student were sentenced Monday to 11 to 25 years in prison.

Both Grady L. Banks, 22, and Paul Davis, 28, were convicted of armed robbery and shooting with intent to kill.

Their victim, 25-year-old Eugene Greathouse of Detroit, still is in critical condition in an Ann Arbor, Mich., hospital.

The crime occurred in June after the Toledo men went for a ride with Greathouse and Arthur Clink, 22, of Roseville, Mich., in the Greathouse car. The Toledoans forced the other men out of the car and Davis shot Greathouse four times.

HUMAN TORCH NEAR DEATH

AFTER TWO DAYS OF SUNNY WEATHER, THE FIRST IN NEARLY A MONTH, PAINT CREEK OVERFLOWED PART OF COMMUNITY PARK TUESDAY MORNING.

Streams overflow Here Two Days after Rains

Although most of Fayette County was spared by the drenching downpours last week end, streams rose surprisingly and overflowed their banks Tuesday morning after more than 48 hours of fair weather.

The effects of the deluge that hit the area about 25 miles north of the city Saturday and Sunday did not reach here until Tuesday.

The flooding was not nearly so destructive as that south of the county, but streams did spread out over the lowlands — two days after fears of floods faded away.

The crest of the high water in Sugar Creek reached Jeffersonville Monday. Residents of the village said the stream was the highest it had been all summer, although the weekend rains in the community had been lighter than many others during July.

Self-Defense Claimed in Indiana Slaying

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—A well-known Indianapolis father-and-son lawyer team was hired Monday by divorcee Connie Nicholas to defend her in the killing of drug company executive Forrest Teel.

Charles W. Symmes announced he and his father, Frank A. Symmes, will defend the twice-divorced woman.

The younger Symmes indicated Mrs. Nicholas' strategy would be self-defense.

Her right eye is swollen shut," he said. "Someone really slugged her."

He visited the 42-year-old woman in General Hospital Monday. She continued to improve from an overdose of sleeping pills she took shortly after the married 54-year-old executive vice president of the Eli Lilly & Co. was shot last Thursday.

When she awoke from a coma Saturday, she told police she shot Teel in a violent argument after he left the apartment of a newer friend, Laura L. Mower, 29.

Detective Capt. Michael Smiley said he will ask for a first-degree murder indictment, which could result in the death penalty.

Farmers throughout the county were not particularly concerned with the flooding. They were worried about their crops—wheat, oats, barley, corn, soybeans and hay — just about everything that grows on the land except the grass of the pastures.

Already farmers have taken a big loss on their wheat which was damaged while standing in the field as the rains kept the combines out.

COUNTY EXTENSION AGENT W. W. Montgomery estimated that 3,000 to 4,000 acres of wheat remains to be harvested. That is about 80 per cent of the total.

Oats, he said, are down in the fields, with possibly 35 to 30 per cent of the approximately 10,000 acres untouched by the combines.

Most farmers, he said, have abandoned their barley as grain. Some will put it up for hay.

The continued rains, he said, are

35 OK, 22 Easy, But 36 Too Snug

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jeanne Brown, a 35-22-36 cocktail waitress in jail on a drunkenness charge, tried to leave her cell by way of the small opening through which food is passed to prisoners.

The 28-year-old squeezed her 35 through the 22 was a cinch. But at the 36, her escape attempt came to an end. Hacksaws freed her for another cell.

3,100 More Personnel Seen for Clinton Base

WILMINGTON — Clinton County Air Force Base will get a military personnel boost of 3,100 within the next two years, Col. Frederic G. Huish, base commander, announced yesterday.

It was the first official figure released concerning the personnel increase. Early unofficial estimates had placed the figure at between 700 and 900.

Col. Huish said he was not in a position to elaborate on the announcement but said the added personnel would mean 1,240 additional families in the community with a total of 2,480 children, 868 of whom will be of school age.

He said the men and their families are scheduled to be here by the summer of 1960.

THE PERSONNEL boost ties in with the assignment of the Strategic Air Command here and the multi-million dollar expansion program which got underway last week.

Victim's Uncle, After Revenge, Is Now Missing

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—New mystery piled up today in the human-torch burning of an ex-convict business agent for the Teamsters Union. His ex-convict uncle, who swore revenge, has disappeared.

Herman Kierdorf, 63, was missing and sought on a warrant charging him with possessing a silencer for a pistol.

Herman had both sworn revenge for his nephew's burning and reported receiving a telephone threat of: "You'll be next."

Herman's nephew, Frank Kierdorf, 56, lay near death at a Pontiac hospital, his body burned nearly from head to foot.

Frank told authorities two gunmen he didn't know made a human torch of him Monday and he was positive the torture-burning was in some way connected with union business. Frank was tossed from a car to the hospital grounds.

Herman disappeared Monday night after persuading Frank to gasp out his pain-racked story.

County Prosecutor Frederick Ziem said a briefcase Herman Kierdorf left at a neighbor's home contained a German pistol with a home-made silencer.

Two telephones and another weapon also were found in a sack left at the neighbor's by Herman, Ziem said. He said that Herman "wouldn't tell us anything."

Earlier, the uncle was quoted as saying: "I don't have any idea who did it, but I'm going to find out."

Police said he was last seen as he left St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Monday afternoon.

Alerts were sent to neighboring police departments.

Frank at first would only whisper through his burned lips that he was "John Doe of Washington, D.C." Identity finally was established through fingerprints. He

2 Girls Admit Razor Attack on Envoy's Daughter

NEW YORK (AP)—Two teen-aged girls Monday admitted being involved in a razor attack on the 16-year-old daughter of Iran's representative to the United Nations.

Patrolman Eugene Hatchett caught Shirley Sherard, 16, through a police artist's sketch of the two assailants.

She led police to Harriet Fleming, 19. Both girls are Negro.

Shirley told police she merely watched as the Fleming girl cut Frieda Abdoh, daughter of Djalal Abdoh, in Bronx Park last May 10.

The Abdoh girl's dress was slashed and the little finger of her right hand cut. She was accompanied by her 12-year-old sister Mastay, who helped describe the assailants for police.

The Sherard girl was charged with juvenile delinquency because she was 15 at the time of the attack. The Fleming girl was held on a felonious assault charge.

Commissioners Defer Annexation Decision

No decision is expected before Aug. 18 on a major annexation petition now being considered by the Fayette Board of Commissioners.

The petition, requesting transfer of a 3.42-square-mile area to the City of Washington C. H. for governmental purposes, was handed to the commissioners May 19, and a public hearing was held July 28.

Board members Clifford Hughes, Ralph Minton and Robert Cockerill reviewed the transcript of the hearing in an executive session Monday afternoon but adjourned without reaching a decision.

Both Minton and Cockerill will attend a convention of the National Assn. of County Officials in Portland, Ore., beginning this weekend, and there will be no regular meeting of the body next Monday.

Hoffa Payoff Told in Probe

Detroit Laundry Strike 'Averted' for $450

WASHINGTON (AP)—A former Detroit laundry operator swore today that payoffs he understood would go to Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa averted a threatened strike in 1949.

William H. Miller told the Senate Rackets Investigations Committee he personally turned over $450 to an official of an organization of laundry firms. He said it was his understanding this would go to Hoffa as the price of labor peace in the Detroit laundry industry.

Hoffa was Midwest boss of the union at that time.

Hoffa was a witness today before the Senate committee, and had been asked to step aside while Miller testified.

Hoffa, who had just denied much recollection of anything having to do with the negotiations in the 1949 labor dispute, sat silently at the witness table in the big, crowded hearing room as Miller testified.

Miller, who said he now runs a hotel and restaurant at Watermead, Mich., said he was in the laundry business in 1949.

Miller said he cannot of his own knowledge swear that any of the money ever did go to Hoffa.

Miller said there had been a meeting of negotiators for the laundry owners group with a man he understood to be Hoffa.

He said he later received a report that a contract could be signed with the payment of $90 per truck to Hoffa by those having labor trouble with the Teamsters union at the time.

Miller said he did not know whether officials of other laundries also paid.

He said his $450 was paid over a period of three years.

When Hoffa took the witness chair, he was told he was going to be questioned at length about his alleged associations with gangsters.

Human Torch

Apparently had dug his finger tips into his palms as flames seared him.

Both nephew and uncle have been reluctant witnesses before the Senate Rackets Committee in its probe of the Teamsters Union.

Frank Kierdorf said he was lured from his home and driven to a lonely woods where his sadistic captors poured an inflammable liquid on him and lit a match to him.

Kierdorf said the two men came to his house in nearby Flint late Sunday night and asked him to go with them on union organizing business, pulled a gun on him and took him in their car to the woods. They later dumped him on the grounds of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Doctors said it was amazing Frank Kierdorf still was alive. He had been burned over 85 per cent of his body. His arms, chest and legs were a mass of raw, black blisters. His hair had been burned off and his face was puffed twice its normal size.

A son, Frank Jr., 30, who identified his father, said tearfully: "When you play rough, you get hurt sometimes."

Frank Kierdorf was business agent for Teamsters Local 332 at Flint. His uncle was business agent for the Teamsters Joint Council 32 in Detroit and was an aide of Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa.

Both Kierdorfs had been called as witnesses before the Senate Rackets Committee in connection with its investigation of the union.

Frank was called last November. At that time he was accused by the committee of selling out union members by taking payoffs to call off strikes and of shaking down employers by threatening to picket them unless they used special labor counseling services. The committee sought to link these services with Kierdorf.

Herman Kierdorf was questioned last Friday about alleged shakedowns in the Detroit industrial laundry business.

Both men repeatedly invoked the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering committee questions. After last week's hearings Herman Kierdorf announced he had quit his Teamster job.

Both Kierdorfs had served prison terms for armed robbery. Robert F. Kennedy, committee counsel, said Kierdorf's statement that he believed the attack was connected with union business threw the case clearly within the committee's jurisdiction. He promised an investigation.

Bruising Leap Taken by Wife

RIGBY, Idaho (AP)—Mrs. Jacqueline Cole, 18, says she had an argument with her husband while in the family car. She told Sheriff Howard Shaffer her temper got the best of her and she dove out the window, leaving Cole at the wheel. The car was moving at about 50 miles an hour, Shaffer said. Mrs. Cole was treated for cuts and bruises.

Deaths, Funerals

John A. Brown

John A. Brown, 82, died at 12:05 a. m. Tuesday in his home, 1110 N. North St., following a week's serious illness. He had been in failing health for three years.

He was born in Union County, but spent most of his life in Fayette County as a farmer in the community north of Bloomingburg. He retired in 1951 and moved to Washington C. H.

He is survived by his wife, Minnie; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Ellen Blackburn of Circleville, and two grandsons, John and Robert Morrison of Wooster, sons of a daughter who preceded him in death.

Services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Friday in the Gerstner Funeral Home by the Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Methodist Church. Burial will be in the Bloomingburg Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. Wednesday.

O'Neill Picnic Costs Rapped By DiSalle

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—Michael V. DiSalle said today the reelection campaign of Gov. C. William O'Neill is directed by a group of "over-eager, over-ambitious" young men in a lavish manner which "leads to bribery, payoffs and corruption."

DiSalle, Democratic gubernatorial nominee, spoke at a breakfast of 65 local Democrats here.

He said the O'Neill lieutenants are headed by Cleveland attorney Alvin I. Krenzel.

These young politicians, DiSalle declared, "are not imbued with philosophy of government as we know it."

He accused them of brazenly and purposely trying to outstep the Democrats in the gubernatorial campaign.

DiSalle said O'Neill already has spent $100,000 in a series of 11 picnic-type rallies. In one Columbus rally, he said, the O'Neill-for-Governor committee spent $25,000, equivalent to the annual salary of the governor of Ohio.

In comparison, he continued, the Democratic state headquarters will have spent only $1,200 on a caravan that will have taken candidates through 71 counties when it ends Wednesday.

15-Year Stint In Clinic Fails To Slow Man

CHICAGO (AP)—A legless man who spent 15 years on his stomach in a hospital after an automobile accident has driven 18,000 miles since his discharge a year ago seeking to rebuild his former business.

Cornelius (Bud) Koster, who operated an electrical sign business before his spine was crushed in the accident in 1942, has put this mileage on his specially rigged car driving in the suburban Bellwood area in search of new business.

"I want to get back where I was before I got hurt," Koster told a reporter. "The way I look at it, if a guy really wants to do something, he can do it."

A year ago Koster, 39, was released from the Cook County Hospital after his marriage to Mrs. Josephine Masterson, 41.

Mrs. Koster rides with him at night after she gets home from her job as a telephone company supervisor. She writes down the names of businesses where they see faulty neon signs. The next day Bud drops the firms a card calling attention to the trouble and offering his services as a electrical and neon sign expert.

Bud gets around in a wheel chair and negotiates the stairs in an elevator which he adapted from a builder's brick-hauling elevator.

More Steel Firms Plan Price Boost

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Three more steel firms, including the nation's two largest, today increased the cost of selected steel items in the second round of the industry's piecemeal price adjustments.

Posting higher prices for such products as bars, rods, wire and tubular items were U. S. Steel Corp., Bethlehem and Inland. U. S. Steel is the giant of the industry, Bethlehem the No. 2 producer and Inland No. 8.

They followed the lead set last week by Republic Steel, third-ranking producer, and other smaller firms.

U. S. Steel and Inland said increases average about 3 per cent. Bethlehem did not announce any specific figures for its list.

State Studies $17 Million In Road Bids

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Department of Highways today opened bids for three multimillion dollar interstate projects and 120 miles of resurfacing of existing roads.

Total value of all the projects is about 17 million dollars.

Major projects included first section of the Cincinnati circle highway, a relocation of the U. S. 50 bypass; a section of the six-lane Cincinnati-Dayton Freeway and a section of the North-South Freeway.

The circle highway section is in Springfield Twp., Hamilton County, between Ohio 4 and U. S. 25. The 3½ miles of paving includes bridges which will carry the new road over Ohio 4 and Ohio 747 and a grade separation with the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. It is to be finished July 31, 1960.

The apparent low bid of $4,216,436 was submitted by S. J. Groves & Co. of Minneapolis. Estimate was $4,228,700.

The Cincinnati-Dayton Freeway section, also to be finished July 31, 1960, is four miles long, including several bridges and a grade separation with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The apparent low bid of $3,142,395 was submitted by the Foley Construction Co. of Cincinnati. Estimate was $3,340,000.

The North-South Freeway section is to be finished Oct. 31, 1959. It is in Perry and Madison Twp. and Madison Village in Lake County and includes bridges carrying Ohio 307 and Ohio 528 over the freeway.

Dulles Opens Parley with Brazil Chiefs

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles began talks with Brazil's leaders today after a handful of students marred his warm welcome briefly with jeers and a "Go Home" banner.

Dulles' program for the first full day of his 60-hour visit included talks with Foreign Secretary Francisco Negro de Lima and then a meeting with President Juscelino Kubitschek.

Dulles said on arrival Monday he would talk about the world situation, inter-American relations with special attention to economic problems and U. S.-Brazilian relations.

The Brazilians were most interested in what Dulles would have to say about coffee, their chief export crop, and U. S. aid in developing Brazilian oil resources.

Dulles' route from the embassy to the residence of U. S. Ambassador Ellis O. Briggs took him by the headquarters of the leftist National Students Union at 50 miles an hour. Students leaned out the windows jeering and whistling, a Latin-American form of booing. The building was draped in black and signs said "Dulles Go Home," "Petrobras" (the state-owned oil company) is "Untouchable" and "The United States Has No Friends, Just Interests," the latter a quotation attributed to Dulles.

Lima Corrects Water Shortage

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Thousands of Lima residents got relief from a water shortage early today when repairs were completed on a broken 20-inch water main leading into the city from the treatment plant.

A valve broke on one of the two big pipes leading from the plant Monday, depriving many industries and hundreds of homes of water.

One plant, the Superior Coach Corp., had to suspend operations, idling between 600 and 700 workers.

Workmen completed repairs and restored service at 3 a. m. today.

Ohio Ex-Con's Plan For Operation in Prison Is Delayed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Ohio ex-convict Bernie Ray Saville, who wants to go to federal prison so he can have an operation, is a step nearer his goal. But there's going to be some delay—perhaps 40 years.

Saville admitted stealing an expensive car July 9 in Akron, Ohio. He told a dealer he was driving home for the money to buy the car and didn't return.

He surrendered here July 15 and told officers he had been paroled while serving a 2-to-40-year term for forgery in Ohio.

Saville told U. S. Dist. Judge Ben C. Connally he took the car in order to land in a federal prison and obtain surgery, explaining: "The (Ohio) state prison won't do it."

Said Judge Connally: "I don't look with favor on a man who deliberately commits a felony. I sentence you to 18 months in prison, the sentence to be suspended until you finish your term in Ohio."

Sputnik Carrier Visible Tonight

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—The rocket carrier of the Soviet Sputnik III will be visible tonight and Wednesday, Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said today.

The rocket will move in a southeasterly direction 650 miles above the earth.

At 10:37 tonight, it will come into visibility west of Hudson Bay and goes into earth's shadow over New Brunswick. It may be seen everywhere northeast of a line from Washington State to Georgia.

Wednesday, at 12:40 a. m., it comes into visibility over northwestern Canada and at 12:47 a. m. it enters the earth's shadow over Wisconsin. It may be seen everywhere in the Ohio area.

Primary Loss Bans Any Race In General Poll

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Once a candidate has been defeated in a primary election, he can forget about running for some other office in the general election, says Atty. Gen. William Saxbe.

Ohio law states that "no person who seeks party nomination" at a primary and loses "shall be permitted to become a candidate at the following general election for any office," either by a write-in or petition, Saxbe said Monday in a ruling to Lucas County Prosecutor Harry Friberg.

Friberg asked for the opinion to determine whether a county commissioner candidate defeated in the primary election could later be a candidate for county judge.

In another ruling, Saxbe said federally owned properties under lease to private corporations is not subject to Ohio's personal property tax. Federal land is tax-exempt, he said, no matter how it is used.

State Tax Commissioner Stanley J. Bowers raised the question to find out whether tax could be assessed against property owned by the government but in the possession of private corporations doing business in Ohio under federal contracts.

Judicial, Legislative Delays Hit Dixie School Integration

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Racial integration of public schools in the South is running up against the twin barriers of judicial delay and legislative defiance.

A court determination of how long integration can be delayed is in the making at St. Louis only one level below the nation's highest court. There the seven-judge 8th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals is considering the legality of a 2½-year suspension of integration at one of the focal points of the whole, far-flung integration dispute—Little Rock's Central High School. A ruling is expected before the schools open in the fall.

A still longer delay of seven years was granted by a U. S. district court judge in bringing the races together at schools in Virginia's Prince Edward County, which figured in the Supreme Court's 1954 integration ruling. State officials hailed the delay as realistic and gratifying, while attorneys for Negro children seeking admission to white schools pondered whether to appeal.

Enactment of segregation laws has continued apace in the South. The Southern School News, published by the Southern Education Reporting Service, disclosed today in Nashville, Tenn., that there have been 196 such enactments since the 1954 integration decree.

Seven states have resolved by legislation to close their public schools if integration is forced upon them. Louisiana, Mississippi and Virginia passed such laws this year. Taking this anti-integration step earlier were Alabama, North and South Carolina and Georgia.

If these laws are carried out, any integration victory in federal courts might prove a hollow one. Another result very well could be

Anti-Union Shop Petitions To Be Filed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—If everything goes according to schedule, Ohio's secretary of state will receive petitions bearing 440,000 or more signatures sometime late today.

The petitions are to put a proposed constitutional amendment—to outlaw the union shop in Ohio—on the Nov. 4 ballot. The deadline is midnight, but the organization filing them, Ohioans for Right to Work, Inc., says they will be delivered long before then.

Ted M. Gray Sr., a former state senator and executive director of Ohioans for Right to Work, said the petitions will be transferred from the vault of a downtown Columbus bank under guard from Brinks, Inc.

"The cost of everything we have done is wrapped up in those petitions," he said.

The organization paid circulators other than volunteers 20 cents a name, and Gray said each petition is worth $5 to the organization. Altogether, he said, the petitions are worth a quarter-million dollars to Ohioans for Right to Work.

Backers of the amendment must have 354,210 valid signatures to qualify the issue for the ballot. If passed, it would do away with the requirement in some places of work that an employee must join a union within a certain period of time.

Purse Snatched, $26,000 Missed

WILMINGTON, Calif. (AP)—A teen-ager snatched a woman's purse and fled Monday. In the purse was $26,000.

But, said police, the youth removed a wallet, then dropped the purse. The money wasn't in the wallet—it was stuffed in several envelopes.

Anastasia Krouses, 38, a Greece national living in Long Beach, told officers she had been carrying that money around with her for more than a year.

"In Greece, everybody carries money with them," she said.

Police said the cash included fourteen $1,000 bills.

Hints Seen Of New Round Of Inflation

Bond Prices Decline,
Stocks Climb; Traders
Said Disturbed Now

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — The U.S. Treasury's financing problems and a growing belief that a new round of inflation is starting have brought the yield on bonds today strikingly close to that on stocks.

That is, bond prices have gone down, making a return on their fixed rates higher if bought today. And stock prices have gone up while corporate earnings were falling and dividend payments were mostly static or dwindling, making a return on stocks at today's prices smaller.

Traders in stocks and bonds are disturbed both over the growing belief that inflation is inevitable and over possible effects on the money market of the steps that the Treasury, aided by the Federal Reserve System, may have to take in the months ahead to finance the growing federal debt.

At first the U.S. bond market's troubles were blamed on speculators who bought on slip margins hoping for a quick kill. When the price of newly issued government securities, which they had thought were priced below the market, went down instead of up, they were forced to sell at a loss, further upsetting the market.

But some observers are looking for more far reaching causes than the speculator's getting burnt fingers.

They cite the Treasury's subsequent refunding of a little more than 16 billion dollars of maturing government securities. The return on the new offering seemed right, but the Treasury says that holders of around 2 3/4 billion dollars asked for cash instead. This was 17 per cent of the total.

But the National City Bank of New York points out today in its August bank letter that the Federal Reserve held many of the exchanged securities and had bought more of the old ones just before offering to help the treasury.

Counting out the securities held by the Fed, which automatically exchanged for the new, 29 per cent of those held outside the system were turned in for cash.

And the bank adds that the Fed also bought more than one billion dollars of the new offering from outside holders on a when-issued basis, which are being turned in for the new securities. The bank figures this brings public holders demanding cash to 42 per cent of their original holdings.

Out of this came renewed downward pressure on bond prices, both government and corporate—and hence higher yields at today's prices.

U.S. Government bonds are the safest in the land. They will be repaid in full. But the bank points out that in times of creeping inflation the fixed return on bonds looks unattractive to those who see the market value of the dollar receding.

Teamsters Eye Sears Roebuck

Organization Drive Planned by Big Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — James Hoffa's giant teamsters union is quietly mapping an organization drive aimed at the biggest merchandiser of them all: Sears Roebuck and Co.

So far, the teamsters have talked only in general terms about this drive. Organizing efforts, they say, will start at different times in various places this fall on the initiative of state officers.

But a 44-page booklet detailing Sears' operations has been distributed privately to teamster locals concerned with Sears. The booklet frankly concedes that Sears won't be easy to organize.

As an example of the job ahead, the booklet shows that in Ohio alone Sears has warehouses and retail stores in 32 cities. In contrast, the teamsters have locals in only four Ohio stores: one each in Canton and Akron and two stores in Cleveland.

Even in those places, Sears employees are by no means fully organized by the teamsters. Warehouse employees, for instance, are teamsters in the Canton and Akron stores and in one of the Cleveland stores.

On the other hand, the second Cleveland store has only its garage employees in the union. None of the Sears sales clerks and office workers in Ohio belong to the teamsters.

As the booklet outlines it, the two principal points that will make it tough to organize Sears are these: (1) Sears' general practice of meeting prevailing wages and working condition and (2) a highly successful profit sharing plan.

This profit plan, says the booklet is a combination pension and savings arrangement that has resulted in some amazing cash benefits for some Sears employees. Both company and employees contribute.

"Many employees have accumulated 40 to 50 thousand dollars in the plan and one man who worked 40 years accumulated $338,000," the teamster booklet says.

O'Neill Pledges Action on Crop Damage

WAVERLY, Ohio (AP)—His administration will take whatever action is in its power—"insofar as we can and should"—to help farmers who have suffered crop damage from recent rains, Gov. C. William O'Neill has pledged.

He told a "bring - your - own lunch" picnic gathering at nearby Lake White Monday that he is waiting for a report due Aug. 16 from a special committee set up to study crop damage.

A fact-finding committee headed by Dr. James R. Hay, Ohio director of agriculture, today approved a study on a statewide basis by counties.

Three agencies will cooperate in the study. They are county agents, county supervisors of the state Farmers Home Administration and county office managers of the Federal Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The studies will evaluate condition of crops as of Aug. 11 with conditions a year ago and normal.

A six-man committee, headed by Hay, will study the reports on Aug. 15 and present them to O'Neill the following day.

The study will be made on wheat, corn, soybeans, hay and oats and specialty crops to determine if O'Neill can ask President Eisenhower to declare any or all of Ohio a crop disaster area.

Federal designation of a disaster area makes farmers in the area eligible to apply for low-interest loans.

United Nations on Trial Before World

Right now the United Nations is on trial.

Soon it will be determined whether it is simply a "debating society," as some critics claim, or a definitely effective agency for the protection of smaller nations and preservation of world peace.

If the U.N. fails to meet its responsibilities in connection with the Near East situation it will not be surprising to see it go the way of the old League of Nations after World War I.

In spite of some recent actions, opinions and efforts, no one can tell what may happen with explosive suddenness in the Near East. At best the situation there is extremely serious.

The rapidity of events such as the overthrow of the government of Iraq, the calls for help against reported aggression tactics by Lebanon and Jordan, the sending of American Marines into Lebanon and British soldiers to Jordan, all have far-reaching possibilities.

President Eisenhower apparently recognized all this when he pointed out that the critical state of developments could mean a war of the Korean type or possibly a dreaded World War Three.

It was generally agreed by U. S. congressional leaders that, under present conditions and past commitments, President Eisenhower had no other choice in the firm step he took. Former Presidents Hoover and Truman stated this view.

Latest reports seem to indicate there has been a clearing up, to a degree in the Lebanon situation. Many doubt that Russia will send troops into the Near East, but there can be no certainty as to this.

If any actual fighting develops it is to be hoped that other members of the United Nations will be more cooperative than they were in Korea where, aside from South Korean forces, American troops did 98 per cent of the fighting, and American taxpayers did 99 per cent of the paying.

Pace of Life Slows Writers

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—What is the main problem of a creative writer in this country?

"It's the pace of American life itself," said Budd Schulberg. "It's so easy to get distracted. Too many things going on. Too many phones ringing. You have to find a place where you can dig in and be alone."

Budd, a strongly built, gregarious fellow with a face like a friendly grizzly bear, has a place of retreat. It's a small beach shack at Sarasota, Fla.

But he has had no time for privacy since he and his brother, Stuart, teamed up as movie producers, following the family tradition established by their noted father, B. P. Schulberg, a Hollywood picture pioneer.

Their first venture is the untold story of the renegade plume hunters in Florida's watery frontier wilderness. They plan next year to make a film on the capture of the Remagen Bridge across the Rhine in World War II. "But I want to keep on writing," said Budd, who is currently working on a Broadway production of one of his earlier novels, "The Disenchanted."

Budd is a writer who never has known real hunger himself, although he has written often about people who are hungry for something—whether it be for food, power or love.

He sold a couple of short stories for $50 each while still a student at Dartmouth. After graduation he clicked with the slick paper magazines, worked on a dozen film scripts, then hit big with his first novel, "What Makes Sammy Run."

The film version of a later novel, "On the Waterfront," won an Academy Award.

Schulberg, a man with a vast appetite for living, likes to work hard and play hard. His prodigious researches have made him acquainted with enough rogues and rascals, caught and uncaught, to overflow Sing Sing. He goes for the off-beat character, whether the guy's a prisoner, prince or prelate.

"Sometimes I don't know whether the research I do is really work," he said, "or a form of procrastination—to delay the actual writing."

"But I'm pretty fast once I start writing. I write my first draft in pencil on one of those long yellow legal pads. In fact I'm blocked without one—can't write until I do find one."

Budd makes corrections in his second draft, which he turns out on the typewriter. Then makes interlinear changes in it before having his third and final draft typed.

He turns out about 5,000 words a week when things are going well, but it's hard to keep up that average, he says.

Budd feels the biggest price any writer has to pay is failure because of refusal to compromise his material.

"But you have to be ready to fail rather than compromise," he said, "although the temptation to compromise is stronger than ever."

"But the most successful writers have become successful by trying to please themselves rather than the public. The public responds in the long run to the writer who stays true to himself."

Here is his advice to a beginning writer:

"Love or hate something. Learn as much as you can and crystallize your own attitudes—so you won't imitate anybody else. "Then take the thing you know the best and feel strongest about, and write it in your own way. If you don't feel strongly about anything, you probably won't be able to write well about it."

Wealth Has Lost Its Taint

By George Sokolsky

It used to be that a candidate for public office boasted that he was born in a log cabin or a shanty or something like that, that his mother took in washings and died at an early age of a broken heart because his father deserted her and her 10 children.

Or, he boasted that he was a common man, despised special privilege and never saw the inside of such a place as the Colony Restaurant. Or that he was a self-made man, who pulled himself upward and onward by his bootstraps, and owed nothing to nobody.

Times have changed and wealth has lost its taint. It looks as though three millionaires will be running for governor of the state of New York this fall, all the products of inherited wealth.

The Democratic candidate, will, of course, be Averell Harriman whose father created the largest Western railroad empire and who produced many millions of dollars for himself and his heirs. The elder Harriman was a Republican, as most rich men were at the beginning of this century. So was Averell, but he turned with the New Deal and became a very useful adjunct of the Roosevelt and subsequently the Truman administrations.

No one expected him to be elected governor, but he was chosen by a smallish vote. He now runs for reelection and the best political guessers have it that he will be reelected. If Jim Farley is his running mate, he cannot lose.

The Republicans plan to nominate Nelson Rockefeller, the political activist of the five Rockefeller brothers. John D. Rockefeller Jr.'s five sons have many diverse characteristics.

John D. Rockefeller III is a modest, quiet businessman who devoted himself to family charities and civic affairs. He is one of the creators of the Lincoln Square project which is likely to give New York an art center such as no city in the world possesses.

Laurance Rockefeller is in the business; David Rockefeller is downtown in the family bank, the Chase-Manhattan Bank; Winthrop is out in Arkansas, living the good life of a rancher and farmer after a short spell of playboy in New York; Nelson is the politician.

Nelson Rockefeller has served in the Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower administrations in many different kinds of positions, not always with glory but with adequate bureaucratic competence. His emergence as a New York State politician, a candidate for elective office is undoubtedly a prelude, should he be elected, for still higher ambitions. He brings to New York State's weakened Republican party two valuable assets, money and organizational skill of a high order.

The third millionaire and inheritor of wealth is Corliss Lamont, son of Thomas W. Lamont, of J. P. Morgan & Company. Corliss Lamont has often been accused of being a Communist party member, but this he has always denied.

At one time the State Department refused to grant him a passport, but now, due to Supreme Court decisions, he has a passport. He has taught at Columbia University; he is the author of several books, none of which have shaken the world. He has been active in left-wing movements.

Red China, Moscow's Oriental branch, plans to launch its own man-made moon. Sort of a satellite's satellite?

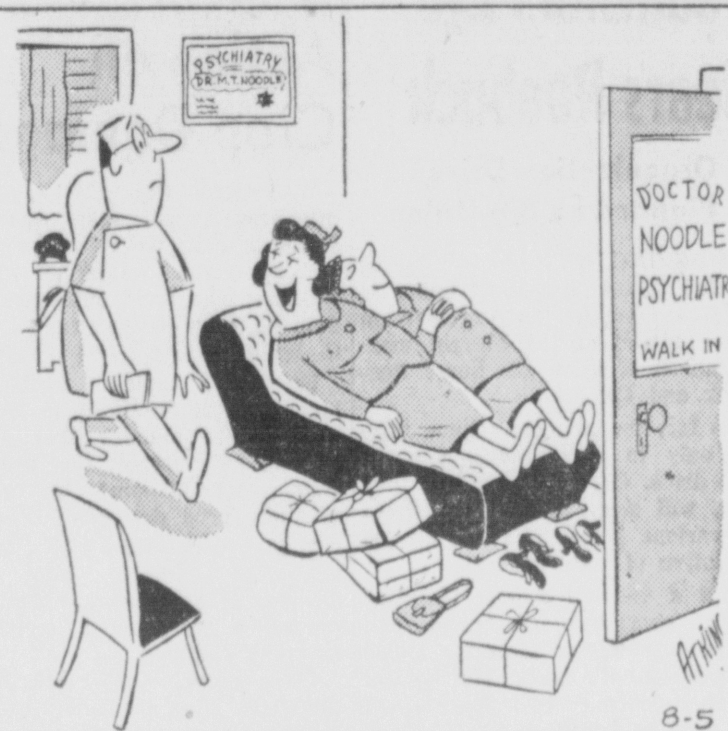

Incidentally, the New China news agency reports that peasant households in that Communist country now average one and one-half pigs apiece. Wonder what form that half a pig takes—sausage or pork chops.

A former rodeo trick shot artist spotted a burglar in his Indianapolis shop, fired at him three times, missed. Maybe the burglar was a magician!

Premenstrual Tension Affects Family, Too

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

HUSBANDS are victims of premenstrual tension, too. In fact, in many cases the whole family suffers.

Principal symptoms of this repeated troublesome occurrence which affects an estimated 30 to 40 per cent of menstruating women are hair-trigger temper, depression, irritability, aggressiveness, hostility, feelings of guilt and disturbing changes in sexual desire.

Disturbing Factor Although no reliable study has been made on the subject, it seems pretty obvious that premenstrual tension can be a disturbing factor in the home. And, I'm sure, it is the underlying cause of many divorces.

Husbands, in most cases, just don't understand these abrupt changes in personality many of their wives go through once a month.

Instead of being sympathetic, they adopt a hostile attitude, too, and when a tensed-up wife sounds off about something, the old man is right there, ready and willing to do battle.

Whole Family Suffers In any such conflict, both husband and wife suffer. Naturally, the children come in for more than their share of abuse as a result.

That's why I say the husband and children are victims of premenstrual tension just as much as the woman who is undergoing the strain.

There are two solutions as I see it. Generally, I recommend both, because they augment each other.

First, doctors do have medical help available for women suffering premenstrual tension. Some of the tranquilizers have provided pronounced relief. So if a woman in your household is bothered by these symptoms, make sure she sees her doctor.

Now, a piece of advice for you husbands.

Husband Must Understand You must learn to understand these periods of aggressiveness and moodiness your wife adopts periodically.

True, even we doctors don't know too much about these disturbing periods. But we do know that the personal suffering of many of these women is very intense.

Thus, you must adopt a sympathetic and understanding attitude toward these outbursts of temperament. You must learn to live with them, although if a woman seeks medical help, they often will be relieved considerably or even eliminated.

Premenstrual tension is a problem for you, Mister Husband, just as much as it is for your wife. If you work together, you can solve it.

The Nation Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—American treaties with other countries circle the globe but the latest commitment — to the Baghdad Pact — can by itself be a stumbling block to any real settlement in the Middle East.

The United States helped create the Baghdad Pact — which was born in 1955 — but has avoided becoming an outright member. The members were Britain, Turkey, Iran, Iraq and Pakistan.

All but Britain lie across the southern Soviet frontier. The purpose was to unite them in a mutual defense agreement against any Soviet attack. It would also serve as a military wall against Soviet invasion of the Middle East.

We supplied arms to the pact countries, but stayed out of actual membership. Then the July revolt in Iraq all but ended that nation's participation. It probably will pull out. This brought the whole arrangement to the edge of disaster.

To avoid collapse of the pact Secretary of State Dulles last week signed an agreement committing the United States to defense of Iran, Turkey and Pakistan. This in effect made the United States a full-fledged partner, although still technically not a member. Thus the wall against the Soviet Union was preserved.

Presumably the United States could move into any one of the pact countries to preserve their pro-Western governments from internal overthrow, if requested to do so, just as the United States moved into Lebanon upon request.

What will be the effect of American partnership in the pact? It can be stated on excellent authority that the Eisenhower administration feels there will be a good psychological effect, perhaps more important than any practical effect.

This would seem to mean the administration believes the present pact countries, friendly to the West, would, with American partnership, be strengthened against Soviet pressure from without and subversive efforts from within.

But the Arab nations — with the exception of Iraq prior to its July revolt — have been hostile to this military alliance on the northern fringe of the Middle East sitting just above the Arab world.

And the Soviet Union, of course, was and is violent in its denunciation of such a military alliance on its southern frontier. This can be understood.

It's not hard to imagine the reaction in this country if the Soviet Union had sponsored — and then joined — a military alliance of the Latin-American countries just south of the United States from Mexico to the Panama Canal.

An agreement between the Soviet Union and the West to ban East has been mentioned as one way of preserving peace and some arms shipments to the Middle East has been mentioned as one way of preserving peace and some stability in that area.

Such an agreement now seems impossible.

Before the Soviet Union agreed to a ban on arms shipments to the Middle East it almost certainly would want the pact countries in the area just south of it — Turkey, Iran and Pakistan — included among the nations which no longer could get arms.

But how can this country, after virtually joining the pact, now do an about-face and, even at the price of getting peace in the Middle East, agree to an arms embargo that applied to its new pact partners?

In six high schools and 44 grade schools in France, classes are now maintained for children of U. S. Army personnel. American high school graduates go on to study in French universities.

McCorkle-Musser Vows Exchanged In Overbrook Presbyterian Church

MRS. JAMES GORDON MUSSER

The Overbrook Presbyterian Church in Columbus was the setting Saturday afternoon of the open church wedding of Miss Margery Jane McCorkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McCorkle of 272 Blenheim Rd., Columbus, and Mr. James Gordon Musser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Musser of 811 Briar Ave., Washington C. H.

The Rev. Raymond Dransfield performed the double-ring ceremony at half past two o'clock before an altar adorned with lovely arrangements of white gladioli and daisy mums.

A half hour program of traditional nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Hazel S. Webb, organist, preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length princess style gown of white Chantilly lace over white taffeta. Her elbow length veil of white illusion lace was attached to a white lace headpiece and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Claire Alexander of Massillon, the bride's maid of honor and only attendant, was attired in a street length gown of light blue summer cotton which was the same style as the bride's. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses.

Mr. Richard Hodson of Washington C. H. served as Mr. Musser's best man. Guests were seated by Mr. Norman Burris of Washington C. H., Mr. William McCorkle of Columbus, brother of the bride; and Mr. Lee Kelsner, also of Columbus.

Mrs. McCorkle chose for her daughter's wedding an afternoon length gown of beige silk chambray and pink accessories.

The bridegroom's mother was wearing a French blue polished cotton gown and beige accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink gladioli.

A reception was held in the church social rooms following the ceremony.

The bride's table was beautifully appointed and centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Hostesses for the affair were Miss Terri Frankenberg of Reynoldsburg, and Miss Joyce Hannier, Miss Carol Roberts, Miss Nancy Chase and Miss Elaine Grube, all of Columbus.

After a two-week wedding trip through the New England states, the young couple will live in Columbus.

The former Miss McCorkle was graduated from North High School, Columbus, and is a senior student in the college of education at Ohio State University.

Mr. Musser was graduated from Washington C. H. High School and attended Ohio University for two years. He served four years with the U. S. Navy as an aerologist, and is at present a senior in the college of commerce at Ohio State University.

Jennings Return From Western Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jennings and children, Steven and Dale, have returned from their western trip.

While there they attended the Frontier Days Rodeo in Cheyenne, Wyo. From there they went to Las Vegas, Nev., where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fox of Santa Ana, Calif. Mrs. Fox is a former resident of Washington C. H.

Before returning home the Jennings visited other places of interest in the west.

Fremont Program Attended by Local Women

Mrs. Loren D. Hynes, president of the Major Samuel Myers chapter, U. S. Daughters of 1812, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas H. Parrett, Mrs. J. Earl McLean and Mrs. Paul D. Fairley, Greenfield, attended the program and unveiling of the bronze tablet on the restored marker near the site of the grave of Seneca John, an Indian chief, in Fremont Saturday afternoon.

The restoring of the marker was made possible by the Sandusky County Historical Society in cooperation with the Joshua Giddings chapter, U. S. Daughters of 1812. The marker is located beside Highway 19 approximately six miles south of Fremont on land once occupied by the Seneca Indians.

Mr. B. B. Smith, president of the Sandusky County Historical Society, presided during the afternoon program. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. Leslie D. Vesey, minister of the Hayes Memorial Methodist Church, and the Pledge of the Flag was led by Mr. Clay L. Huss.

Mrs. George D. Jenkins, chairman of the program committee, presented Mr. Walter W. Hofelich who gave the story of Seneca John as it is recorded in the journal of General Henry C. Brish, Seneca Indian agent at that time.

Miss Dorothy Sampson, president of the Joshua Giddings Chapter, unveiled the restored marker.

The Cho-Ko-Tas Boy Scout Troup 453 of St. John's Lutheran Church of Fremont, presented "The Cors Is Heavy" by Walter Holland, a dramatization of the trial and execution of Seneca John, about 1825, by his brothers, Coons tick and Steel.

This colorful pageant was narrated by Walter Holland and directed by Duane McGormley, who also acted the part of Seneca John.

Seneca John, chief of his tribe, was accused of practicing witchcraft by his jealous brothers and told that it was their duty to be his executioners.

After the program, the visiting members from the Major Samuel Myers chapter and the representatives of Peter Navarre, Solomon Kuder and the Joshua Giddings chapters were entertained for tea by Mrs. S. E. Stull at her home in Fremont.

Some directions for butter sponge cakes tell you to beat the eggs and sugar in the top of a double boiler over simmering water. Make absolutely sure double boiler — regular or improvised — is really large enough to hold the mixture as it increased in volume.

A replica of the stained glass window used at Purdue will be the worship center.

Mrs. Ormond Dewey will moderate the panel.

Mrs. John Sagar Sr., delegate from First Church; Mrs. Howard Wilson of South Salem, and Miss Isobel Buck and Mrs. Eugene Morehead of Greenfield, will bring highlights from the national meeting of Presbyterian women which was held June 25 - July 1.

The program will close with a worship service led by Mrs. Gene Sagar and a hymn benediction.

A tea will follow in Fellowship Hall.

4 States Hold Their Primary Elections Today

2 Dem Presidential Possibilities Face Little Opposition

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two possibilities for the 1960 Democratic presidential race are expected to clear their local political hurdles in good style today as four states hold primary elections.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan and Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri are strong favorites to gain renomination in primaries in their states. Williams, the onetime boy wonder of Michigan politics, is seeking an unprecedented sixth term.

Other primaries are being held in West Virginia and Kansas. In all, voters in the four states will name candidates for 4 Senate seats, 41 House spots and 2 governorships.

Williams, who has done little campaigning, is opposed by William L. Johnson, a radio station operator at Ironwood. Another term at the statehouse would put Williams in a good position to bid for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960 is he chooses.

Symington, former secretary of the Air Force, has nominal opposition from former Republican Lamar W. Dye of Kansas City and Lawrence L. Hastings of Aurora, a retired Veterans Administration employee. Symington, a darkhorse at the 1956 Democratic convention, is again being mentioned as a possible nominee in 1960.

Missouri Republicans will pick their candidate to oppose Symington from a group of four. Eleven House seats are up for nomination in the state.

Republican Sen. Charles E. Potter has no opposition in his primary race in Michigan. Williams' running mate, Lt. Gov. Philip Hart is opposed by Homer Martin, a former United Auto Workers president, in the Democratic senatorial primary. Eighteen House seats are up for nomination.

The fight for two senatorial berths highlights West Virginia's elections. The GOP incumbents, Chapman Revercomb and John D. Hohlitzel, have no opposition.

But four Democrats have been locked in a tight struggle to win their party's nomination to run against Hohlitzel, who has been filling in for part of the term of the late Democratic Sen. Matthew Neely. The term has two more years.

Rep. Robert C. Byrd heads a list of three Democratic candidates for the right to oppose Revercomb for the six-year term. West Virginia also has to make nominations for six House seats.

In Kansas, Democratic Gov. George Docking is unopposed for renomination, but five Republicans are seeking the GOP nod to run in November. They include former Gov. Fred Hall, who was denied renomination in 1956, and Clyde Reed Jr., Parsons publisher who has strong organization backing. Kansas will nominate for six House positions.

Police said Tuesday he could not be located at that time. So, when Upthegrove went to court he faced two charges.

After he pleaded guilty to the assault charge filed Monday, Judge Max G. Dice dismissed the earlier charge.

Upthegrove was fined $10 and costs on the charge filed Monday.

1,600 Sign Petitions In Fayette County

When Ohio's "Right-to-Work" organization completes filing its petitions for a vote on a constitutional amendment, which would end compulsory membership in Unions, they are expected to contain a total of approximately 460,000 names.

This is over 100,000 more names than required, although all petitions must be returned to the county boards of elections for an official check for improper signatures.

Fayette County has filed more than 1,600 signatures on 35 petitions, according to William Stoughton, chairman of the committee to obtain signatures in this county.

Stoughton, manager of the Chamber of Commerce here, explained that he acted at the request of the Chamber of Commerce, both county and state organizations, which took a stand in favor of the submission of the amendment to give Ohioans a right to vote on this issue, but not on the meaning and purpose of the amendment itself.

ALL PETITIONS are to be filed with Secretary of State Ted Brown Tuesday not later than 4 p. m.

The Ohio "Right-to-Work" organization has carried on a campaign for more than a year to give Ohioans an opportunity to vote on the amendment which, if passed, will bring legislation at the next meeting of the Ohio General Assembly.

Eighteen states already have such laws.

The proposed amendment, which sponsors contend will have no adverse effect on any phase of labor-management relations, reads as follows:

"No employer or labor organization shall deny or abridge the right to work by requiring membership or non-membership in, or payment or non-payment of money to, a labor organization as a condition of employment or continued employment in this State. All agreements in conflict with Section are, to the extent of such conflict, unlawful and of no effect in this State."

Civil Defense Meeting Set for Friday Night

A plan for mutual aid and survival in case of a disaster is to be considered at a Civil Defense meeting in the Courthouse here at 8 p. m. Friday.

C. V. Sexton, head of the Civil Defense unit in Fayette County, and the county commissioners arranged the meeting. It will be held in the commissioners' office on the main floor, but if the turnout overflows it, the meeting will be moved to the Common Pleas Courtroom in the second floor, Sexton said.

Sexton explained that "this meeting is very important" because Fayette County has been designated as a dispersal area for eastern Cincinnati and all of its suburbs in case of emergency. This could mean, he emphasized, that 50,000 to 60,000 people would be evacuated from the big industrial city on the Ohio River to Fayette County where they would have to be fed and housed.

Sexton said that, while the Civil Defense Corps has been called on frequently to help during floods and fires, its primary purpose, he admitted, is to function in case of "an enemy air attack in this atomic age."
